CONSTITUTION

Article 1. Name

The name of this Section of the Kentucky Library Association is the Kentucky Public Library Association. Throughout its official documentation, the organization will be referred to as the "Kentucky Public Library Association", "KPLA", the "Association", or the "Section".

Article 2. Objectives

The objectives of the Kentucky Public Library Association are:

1. To encourage professional growth among its members by offering opportunities for study and for participation in professional activities.
2. To promote the improvement of public library service in Kentucky and the nation.
3. To cooperate with other library agencies in improving all types of library service in Kentucky and the nation.

Article 3. Members

Any member of the Kentucky Library Association (henceforth, this association may be referred to as KLA) who is interested in the improvement of public libraries and pays the stated dues may be an active member of the Kentucky Public Library Association.

Article 4. Officers and Terms of Office

The Executive Officers of the Section are Chair, Vice Chair, Vice Chair-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer. The affairs of the Section are conducted by the Executive Committee consisting of the Executive Officers of the Section and the Immediate Past Chair. The Vice Chair-Elect will automatically transition to Vice Chair after one year. The Vice Chair automatically transitions to Chair after one year. The Chair remains in office for one year. The Secretary and Treasurer serve three-year terms. All terms of office begin following the close of the KLA Fall Conference. Officers may not serve two consecutive terms in the same office.

Article 5. Vacancies

The Executive Committee fills by appointment all vacancies for the unexpired terms of offices.

Article 6. Meetings

The Section holds general business meetings for the Section's membership at the annual KPLA Spring Conference and KLA Fall Conference and at such other times designated by the Executive Committee. Upon petition by twenty-five percent of the section membership, the Executive Committee shall call a special Section Meeting for discussion of the specific issue of the petition.

Article 7. Amendments

The Constitution may be amended at any Section meeting by a two-thirds majority of the members present, if amendments have been proposed to the members at least two weeks before the meeting. Notification of such changes may be delivered through the KPLA website, the KPLA email listserv, and other generally accessible media.

Article 8. Official Year

The Section's fiscal year shall begin January 1 and end December 31. The fiscal year shall govern all financial activities of the Section.

BYLAWS

Section 1. Order of business

At any meeting of the Section, the order of business will be the same as that outlined in the Kentucky Library Association Bylaws. The fourth edition of The Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure by Alice Sturgis shall be the parliamentary authority.

Section 2. Quorum

A quorum of Section meetings shall be those present. A majority of the members of the Executive Committee constitutes a quorum for Executive Committee meetings.

Section 3. Nomination and Election Process of Officers

During the KPLA Spring Conference, the Nominating Committee shall present for consideration of the membership a qualified candidate for Vice Chair-Elect. Nominations for Secretary and Treasurer are presented during the final year of each of these Officers' respective three-year terms. Nominations for open offices may be made from the floor. All terms of office begin following the close of the KLA Fall Conference. Officers may not serve two consecutive terms in the same office.

Section 4. Executive Committee

The Executive Officers of the Section and the Immediate Past Chair shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Section. The Executive Committee recommends policy for the Section, directs its activities, and works for the best interests of its members. The Executive Committee has the power to act for the Section between Section meetings. The Executive Committee shall meet at least four times a year, as scheduled by the Chair. A majority of voting members shall constitute a quorum for the meetings.

Section 5. Other Committees

The Executive Committee may create such committees as deemed necessary in addition to the standing committees of Advocacy, Awards, Budget, Conference, Continuing Education, Intellectual Freedom, Nominating, Public Relations, and Standards. The KPLA Chair shall annually appoint all committee chairs. Committee chairs may serve consecutive terms. The committee chairs will appoint committee members, unless otherwise stated.

Committee members shall have an active membership with the Kentucky Public Library Association Section of the Kentucky Library Association. Exceptions may be made at the request of the committee chair to the Executive Committee. The chair of each committee will report at Executive Committee meetings and membership meetings on committee activities, topics assigned by the Executive Committee, or other items deemed necessary by the committee.

Advocacy Committee

The Advocacy Committee shall develop and direct a legislative strategy in consultation with the Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives (KDLA) for the benefit of Kentucky public libraries. The KPLA Chair, KPLA Immediate Past Chair, and KPLA Vice Chair shall serve on the committee. The State Librarian and Commissioner shall be an ex-officio member. The committee may also request other KDLA staff members to serve as ex-officio members. The committee shall be awarded funds as it is deemed fiscally appropriate by the Executive Committee. If funds are available and the need is perceived, the membership of the KPLA Advocacy Committee may contract with a legislative agent. The chair of the Advocacy Committee shall attend ALA's Legislative Day in Washington, D.C. each year with standard travel reimbursement provided by KPLA. The Advocacy Committee shall receive nominations and determine a recipient for the Public Library Advocacy Award each year.

Awards Committee

The Awards Committee shall solicit nominations for and select recipients of the Section's awards and scholarships. Some awards and scholarships may be assigned to other committees for selection. In all cases, the Awards Committee shall, however, compile nominations for each award and scholarship before distributing them to another committee for selection. The Awards Committee shall also make selections for awards and scholarships in the event that a committee fails to make a determination. The KPLA membership or the Executive Committee establishes all awards and scholarships. The respective criteria for each is determined and approved by the Executive Committee.

Budget Committee

The Budget Committee shall consist of the Executive Committee members. A budget shall be prepared and filed with the KLA Executive Secretary by June 30th of each year for the following fiscal year. For accounting purposes, the KPLA fiscal year is January 1 to December 31 of each year.

Conference Planning Committee

The Conference Planning Committee shall be chaired by the Vice Chair and is responsible for the KPLA Spring Conference. The Chair serves on the KLA Fall Conference Planning Committee. The Vice Chair-Elect will serve on the current Vice Chair's Conference Planning Committee.

Continuing Education Committee

The Continuing Education Committee shall have a minimum of five members. A minimum of one representative from KDLA shall serve on the Committee. The committee shall be awarded funds as it is deemed fiscally appropriate by the Executive Committee in order to provide continuing education opportunities for library staff throughout the state. The committee will seek to provide low-cost, high-quality opportunities that satisfy the current needs of Kentucky library workers.

Intellectual Freedom Committee

The Intellectual Freedom Committee shall consist of a minimum of seven members. The committee chair shall try to ensure a regional representation of all areas of the Commonwealth. A minimum of one representative from KDLA shall serve on the Committee. The Committee chair shall make the KPLA Chair aware of any intellectual freedom challenges within the state and then keep the KPLA Chair aware of developments within any existing situation. The committee will contact any library involved in an intellectual freedom challenge in order to offer support and advice. The chair shall also serve on the KLA Intellectual Freedom Committee.

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee shall be chaired by the Immediate Past Chair and shall have two others members. A slate of proposed officers shall be submitted by this committee at the business meeting for the membership at the KPLA Spring Conference. The committee will also solicit and accept other nominations for officers from the floor during this meeting.

Public Relations Committee

The Public Relations Committee shall consist of a minimum of three members, one of whom shall be the KPLA Vice Chair-Elect. This committee shall oversee the KPLA website, all public relations documents created by the Section or its committees, and the use of the KPLA name/logo. Online accounts, usernames/passwords and other documentation related to these activities shall be maintained by the committee chair and distributed to the Executive Committee or other committee chairs upon request.

Standards Committee

The Standards Committee shall consist of at least seven members from libraries of varying sizes and a minimum of one representative from KDLA. The committee is charged with evaluating and revising the Kentucky Public Library Standards as necessary, tabulating the results of completed evaluations, and communicating the results of the evaluations to the Director of each institution.

Section 5. Dues

The Section dues are paid to KLA as part of the general membership fee or as an additional Section membership.

Section 6. Amendments

The Bylaws of the Kentucky Public Library Association may be added, deleted, or revised by the Executive Committee. If a change is made that does not meet with the approval of a particular member, a written statement of concern should be sent to any member of the Executive Committee. Upon receipt, the Executive Committee will discuss the concern and decide upon its response. A written response will be delivered to the member within ten working days.

If the member is not satisfied with the decision of the committee, then the following procedure will be observed:

- Any member of KPLA may present to the Executive Committee a written petition, signed by at least fifty members, stating specific objections to a policy and the desired change.
- The Secretary will determine if the petitioners are KPLA members.
- If there are sufficient valid signatures the Secretary will prepare a ballot for the membership presenting both the concern(s) and the Executive Committee's response (the ballot and responses may be delivered electronically, as long as it is generally accessible to the entire membership).
- Members will be given a reasonable deadline to make their decisions.
- A simple majority of those members returning their ballots by the stated deadline shall resolve the issue.

Public Relations and Marketing Award

Purpose

The purpose of the Public Relations and Marketing Award, established in 2010, is to recognize a library which has demonstrated remarkable achievement in the promotion of its services. The award may be given for a particular public relations campaign, a series of promotional pieces, an innovative Internet presence, or other activities which serve the purpose of promoting library usage in the community.

Criteria

- The nominated institution's activity (or activities) must not have been previously recognized by the KPLA for an award.
- The nomination should include measurable and comparable data to show the impact of the campaign on library awareness or usage.
- The nomination can be made for a single activity or a compilation of activities that have led to a positive change in the overall measurable public perception of the library.

Rules

- Nominations may be made by any KPLA member.
- Nominations should be concise, responding to the criteria above. Submit no more than two pages of narrative, with the minimum of supporting material necessary including data, promotional materials, printouts, etc.
- The information and the quality of the application shall be the sole basis of selection. Any application not meeting the criteria above will be disqualified.
- Selection will be made by the KPLA Public Relations Committee and forwarded to the KPLA Awards Committee.
- The KPLA Public Relations may choose to make no award in any given year if the quality of the nominations is not determined to be satisfactory.
- All nominations must be signed. No anonymous nominations will be considered.
